Date

Dear [Name of designer/ artist],

Commissioning Letter For Cover Art

Following on from our recent conversation, this is to confirm that I/ we have commissioned you to create original album cover art for me/ us (the “Work”).

The basics of our agreement are as follows:

The album: The album by [ARTIST] entitled “[ TITLE ]”.

Fee: $ payable upon delivery of finished Work.

Delivery Date: [INSERT DATE]

Content/theme: [INSERT IF RELEVANT]

Credit line for artist (where customary and practicable)(i.e. sleeve credit): [INSERT CREDIT]

Format of delivered work: [INSERT FORMAT]

It is a fundamental term of this agreement that [Name of person/ company commissioning art work] is the owner of all rights (including copyright) in the Work (which includes: all designs, art work and text, delivered under this agreement). You agree that I/ we may deal with the Work in any way I/ we see fit, including altering, re-contextualising and otherwise dealing with the Work in a manner which may be inconsistent with Part IX of the Copyright Act 1968.
